

223—49.1(303) Purpose. The historical resource development program provides funds to preserve, conserve, interpret and enhance, and to educate the public about, the historical resources of the state. These rules define parameters for the administration of grants through the historical resource development program.