

281—59.1(257) General principles. Gifted and talented programs shall be provided by a school district and may be made available to eligible students as a cooperative effort between school districts or through cooperative arrangements between school districts and other educational agencies. It is the responsibility of school districts to ensure that the programs comply with state statute and this chapter.

[ARC 7433C, IAB 12/27/23, effective 1/31/24]