

288—14.4(256) Review process (for competitive grants and contracts). The review process to be followed in determining the amount of funds to be approved for any competitive program grant or contract shall be described in the application. The review criteria and point allocation for each criterion shall also be described in the grant application material.