

441—99.39(598,600B) Satisfaction of accrued support.

99.39(1) Disestablishment orders entered before May 21, 1997. Upon receipt of a file-stamped copy of an order disestablishing paternity which was entered before May 21, 1997, the child support recovery unit shall take the following action concerning unpaid support assigned to the department.

a. The child support recovery unit shall satisfy only unpaid support assigned to the department and only if:

(1) For actions under Iowa Code section 600B.41A, blood or genetic testing was done and a guardian ad litem was appointed for the child.

(2) For actions under Iowa Code section 598.21E, the written statement was filed and a guardian ad litem was appointed for the child.

b. The child support recovery unit shall ask the obligee to sign the satisfaction acknowledging the obligee has no right to support owed the department and waive notice of hearing on a subsequent satisfaction order. If the obligee does not sign the satisfaction and waiver of notice, the child support recovery unit is not prevented from satisfying amounts due the department.

c. The child support recovery unit shall prepare the required documents to satisfy any amounts owed the department and shall file them with the appropriate district court. If the court later determines that paternity was incorrectly disestablished, the child support recovery unit may attempt to reinstate and enforce the prior judgment.

99.39(2) Disestablishment orders entered on or after May 21, 1997. Upon receipt of a file-stamped copy of an order disestablishing paternity which was entered on or after May 21, 1997, the child support recovery unit shall take the following action concerning unpaid support:

a. If the order also contains a provision satisfying unpaid support, the unit shall adjust its records to show unpaid support is paid.

b. If the order does not contain a provision satisfying unpaid support, the unit shall satisfy only unpaid support assigned to the department. The unit shall notify the party who petitioned the court for disestablishment that this is the only support the unit can satisfy.

(1) The child support recovery unit shall ask the obligee to sign the satisfaction acknowledging the obligee has no right to support owed the department and waive notice of hearing on a subsequent satisfaction order. If the obligee does not sign the satisfaction and waiver notice, the child support recovery unit is not prevented from satisfying amounts due the department.

(2) The child support recovery unit shall prepare the required documents to satisfy any amounts owed the department and shall file them with the appropriate court. If the court later determines that paternity was incorrectly disestablished, the child support recovery unit may attempt to reinstate and enforce the prior judgment.

99.39(3) Termination of paternity. If the court entered an order dismissing a disestablishment of paternity action on or before May 21, 1997, this subrule applies. Upon receipt of a file-stamped copy of an order terminating paternity under the requirements of Iowa Code section 600B.41A, the child support recovery unit shall take the following action concerning unpaid support assigned to the department:

a. The child support recovery unit shall satisfy only unpaid support assigned to the department.

b. The child support recovery unit shall ask the obligee to sign the satisfaction acknowledging the obligee has no right to support owed the department and waive notice of hearing on a subsequent satisfaction order. If the obligee does not sign the satisfaction and waiver of notice, the child support recovery unit is not prevented from satisfying amounts due the department.

99.39(4) Previously collected moneys. The child support recovery unit shall not return any moneys previously paid on the judgment.
