

481—843.7(151) Physical examination. The chiropractic physician is to perform physical examinations to determine human ailments, or the absence thereof, utilizing principles taught by chiropractic colleges.

Physical examination procedures will not include prescription drugs or operative surgery.

[ARC 7968C, IAB 5/15/24, effective 6/19/24; Editorial change: IAC Supplement 9/18/24]