

493—10.4(815) Application. Any person claiming to be entitled to legal representation by an appointed attorney shall have an indigency evaluation before being provided legal representation. The applicant should provide information on an affidavit of financial status. This form will be prescribed by the state public defender, but any form containing substantially the same information will be accepted.

10.4(1) Affidavit. The applicant shall provide information required by the affidavit of financial status under penalty of perjury.

10.4(2) Family. The applicant shall provide information that accurately represents the number of family members who are supported by or live with the applicant.

10.4(3) Income. The applicant shall provide information that accurately represents the total gross income received or reasonably anticipated to be received by the applicant.

10.4(4) Household income. The applicant shall provide information that accurately represents the gross income of the household in which the applicant lives. The income of a spouse need not be included if the spouse is the alleged victim of the offense charged. The income of a child member of the household need not be included unless the legal representation is sought for the child in a delinquency proceeding.

10.4(5) Assets. The applicant shall provide information that accurately represents the total assets owned, in whole or in part, by the applicant. This includes the requirement to disclose interest in real property and tangible and intangible personal property.

10.4(6) Liabilities. The applicant shall provide information that accurately represents the total monthly debts and expenses for which the applicant is responsible. Child support and alimony payments should be included only when payments have been made in a timely manner.

10.4(7) Nature of proceedings. In a criminal case, the affidavit of financial status shall contain a statement of the charge(s) against the defendant. In a juvenile or civil case, a statement of the nature of the proceedings shall be included.

10.4(8) Child applicant. If the applicant is a child, the child's parent, guardian or custodian shall complete the affidavit of financial status. The affidavit of financial status shall include a statement of the income, assets and liabilities of the person or persons having a legal obligation to support the child.

10.4(9) Additional information. The applicant shall provide such additional information as may be required by the court to determine the applicant's eligibility for appointed counsel. The applicant has a continuing duty to update information provided in the affidavit of financial status to reflect changes in the information previously provided.
