

497—10.4(23) Hearing. A hearing on the request for the injunction shall be heard before the board. The board may require briefs or the filing of other documents. The board shall work with the parties in establishing guidelines for the time of the hearing, the length of arguments, and any other procedural matters. A hearing under this rule is not a contested case under 497—Chapter 4.

[ARC 2913C, IAB 1/18/17, effective 2/22/17]