

545—8.12(17A,22) Release to subject.

8.12(1) The subject of a confidential record may file a written request to review confidential records about that person as provided in rule 8.6(17A,22). However, the committee need not release the following records to the subject:

a. The identity of a person providing information to the committee need not be disclosed directly or indirectly to the subject of the information when the information is authorized to be held confidential pursuant to Iowa Code section 22.7(18) or other provisions of law.

b. Records need not be disclosed to the subject when they are the work product of an attorney or are otherwise privileged.

8.12(2) Reserved.
