

591—17.6(17A) Presiding officer. Upon receipt of a notice of appeal, the administrator shall notify the department of insurance for assignment of an administrative law judge, or, if not available, the department of inspections and appeals for an assignment of an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge assigned shall be the presiding officer for purposes of hearing the appeal. Expenses generated shall be shared equally by the parties.