

61—12.6(17A) Declaratory ruling format. All declaratory rulings shall be in writing and shall state reasons in support of the ruling and shall be provided to the petitioner by certified mail. Rulings shall be mailed to other parties at the discretion of the consumer credit code administrator. Rulings shall be indexed and available for public inspection in the office of the consumer credit code administrator.