

61—17.16(654A,654B) Failure to furnish complete information. Failure to provide a complete request for mediation may cause the initiation of the mandatory mediation time period to be delayed until complete information is furnished. If the director determines that the mediation time period shall be delayed, the director shall immediately notify the party failing to furnish complete information, specifying what information is necessary to make the request for mediation complete. Failure to complete the request for mediation within 21 days may result, at the director's discretion, in the termination of the mediation proceeding. A new request for mediation may then be initiated.
