

641—20.1(135) Purpose. The purpose of the Iowa community water fluoridation grant program is to provide grants to fluoride-deficient public water supplies to assist them in implementing water fluoridation.

The dental health bureau, division of family and community health of the Iowa department of public health, will administer federal Preventive Health and Health Services block grant funds to reimburse eligible local government agencies and nonprofit public water systems for costs involved in implementing water fluoridation.