

641—92.1(135) Purpose. The purpose of the child fatality review committee is to determine whether the department of human services and others involved with the case of child abuse responded appropriately.