

661—13.14(17A,80) Identification card. After the application is approved, the railroad company will be issued an identification card for the applicant. This card should have affixed one fingerprint and the signature of the applicant. It shall then be returned to the administrative services division for authentication signatures.