

661—35.3(80) Notification to complainant. The professional standards bureau shall provide any identified complainant with a written receipt of the complaint and may provide additional information regarding the complaint and its disposition as permitted by law.