

661—400.5(97A) Administrative support. The department provides administrative support to the system, through the administrative services division. The secretary shall be an employee of the department. Employees of the system shall be under the administrative supervision of the director of the administrative services division. Additional administrative support may be provided by other employees of the department at the direction of the commissioner of public safety.