

671—14.2(305) Proposal of government information policies, standards and guidelines. An agency staff member or a member of the public may propose a topic to be developed into a government information policy, standard or guideline by contacting the state records commission through the state archives and records bureau. A proposal may include a draft government information policy, standard or guideline.