

671—4.1(305) Purpose. In order to assist in the maximum efficiency of state government operations, the state records commission operates the state records center, a secure, low-cost storage facility for the temporary storage of records. Central offices of state agencies shall, and field offices may, use the state records center for storage of temporary records in accordance with approved records series retention and disposition schedules.