

671—5.1(305) Purpose. The state archives and records bureau provides access to a record stored in the state records center only to a state agency. The state archives and records bureau does not provide access to a record stored in the state records center to a member of the public.