

671—6.1(305) Purpose. Temporary state government records that have fulfilled administrative, legal, and fiscal requirements shall be destroyed in accordance with records series retention and disposition schedules established by the state records commission.