

681—17.7(22) Consent to disclosure by the subject of a confidential record. The subject of a confidential record may consent to agency disclosure to a third party of that portion of the record concerning the subject. The consent must be in writing and must identify the particular record or records that may be disclosed, the particular person, or class of persons, to whom the record may be disclosed. The person to whom the record is to be disclosed must provide proof of identity. Appearance of counsel on behalf of the subject will be deemed consent to disclose records about the subject to that attorney.
