

721—45.14(572) Grounds for refusal of a posting or submission. A posting or submission may be refused by the administrator on the following grounds:

1. A posting or submission does not provide complete information as required under subrule 45.4(2) for a notice of commencement of work, subrule 45.5(2) for a preliminary notice, subrules 45.6(2) and 45.6(5) for a mechanic's lien, or subrules 45.6(2), 45.6(5) and 45.6(6) for a mechanic's lien for a commercial property;

2. A submission does not include an MNLR number, except for a submission for which the form provided by the administrator does not require an MNLR number;

3. The required fee is not paid for a submission or posting or the fee paid for the submission or posting is insufficient;

4. A submission is not on a form provided by the administrator for the purpose of performing the requested posting; or

5. A submission is not legible, as determined by the administrator.

Additional grounds for the administrator's refusal to accept an MNLR document for posting may be established by policy. The policy shall be noticed to the public by the posting of the policy on the MNLR website.
