

751—10.3(17A,8D) Notice of the violation. In the event the commission determines that an authorized user has violated any of the provisions of these rules, the commission will provide a written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the authorized user describing the violation and the penalty for the violation.