

751—10.4(17A,8D) Effective date and length of suspension, probation or revocation. The effective date of the suspension, probation or revocation of the use or access to the network shall be 20 days following service of the notice of suspension, probation or revocation. An aggrieved authorized user may request a stay of the commission's action regarding use and ask the commission to reconsider its decision. The commission at its discretion may reconsider its decision based upon any further information or evidence the aggrieved party may offer to the commission. The commission may take oral testimony to supplement the evidence presented. The commission's decision shall be reduced to writing and shall constitute final agency action. The decision shall be mailed to the aggrieved parties. In the event the authorized user is a state agency or an institution governed by the board of regents, the provisions of Iowa Code section 679A.19 shall govern any appeal. In the case of a suspension or probation, the commission has the discretion to fix the length of the suspension or probation relative to the severity of the violation by the authorized user.
