

751—7.2(8D) Internet access provided by the network. The commission may offer Internet access to authorized users as permitted by these rules as one of the services of the network.