

876—6.6(86) Twenty-page limitation. Unless otherwise ordered by the workers' compensation commissioner or deputy workers' compensation commissioner, an application for approval of a settlement or an original notice and petition for approval of a commutation or partial commutation shall not be accepted for filing if accompanied by documentation in excess of 20 pages. An order approving a settlement or an original notice and petition for commutation or partial commutation accompanied by documentary evidence in excess of 20 pages is nevertheless valid, and is neither void nor voidable.

This rule is intended to implement Iowa Code sections 85.35, 85.47, 86.13 and 86.27.
