

877—4.1(84A,84B) Purpose. A coordinating service provider will be established in each region to manage the workforce development centers, design products and services, integrate them into a seamless delivery system, and accept responsibility for the performance of the workforce development system.