

193—5.3(17A,546) Applicability. A board may grant a waiver from a rule only if the board has jurisdiction over the rule and the requested waiver is consistent with applicable statutes, constitutional provisions, or other provisions of law. A board may not waive requirements created or duties imposed by statute.