

701—26.33(422) Office and business machine repair. Persons engaged in the business of repairing office and business machines are rendering, furnishing or performing a service, the gross receipts from which are subject to tax. “Repair” shall include mending and renovation of existing parts, replacement of defective parts or subassemblies, but shall not include installation of new parts or accessories which are not replacements.