100.13(1) Paternity established. If genetic testing of an alleged father is conducted and that man is established as the child's father, child support services will assess the costs of the genetic testing to the father who denied paternity and enter an order for repayment of these costs.

100.13(2) Paternity not established. If genetic testing of an alleged father is conducted and that man is not established as the child's father, the costs of the genetic testing will not be assessed to any of the parties.

100.13(3) Results contested. If the results of the genetic testing are timely challenged and the challenging party requests additional testing, the party contesting the results must advance the cost of the additional testing.
