

441—100.9(252F) Paternity test results challenge. Either party or child support services may challenge the results of the paternity test by filing a written notice with the district court within 20 calendar days after child support services issues or mails the paternity test results to the parties. When a party challenges the paternity test results, and requests an additional paternity test, child support services will order an additional blood or genetic test, if the party requesting the additional test pays for the additional testing in advance. If the party challenges the first paternity test results, but does not request additional tests, child support services may order additional blood or genetic tests.

[ARC 8966C, IAB 2/19/25, effective 4/1/25]