

441—102.3(252B) Basis for suspension of support by mutual consent.

102.3(1) *Reconciliation. Child support services will assist an obligor and obligee in suspending support for a child and, if contained in a child support order, spousal support, when the obligor and obligee are reconciled and are residing together, with at least one child entitled to support under the order, in the same household.

102.3(2) *Change in residency. Child support services will assist an obligor and obligee in suspending support for a child when the child is residing with the obligor; however, child support services will not assist in suspending any spousal support provisions of a support order on this basis. Child support services will also assist an obligor and obligee in suspending support for a child residing with a caretaker who has not requested services, if the child is not receiving public assistance.

102.3(3) *Affected children. Child support services will assist an obligor and obligee in suspending by mutual consent all or part of a support order if the basis for suspension as described in this rule applies to the children entitled to support under the order to be suspended as follows:

a. If the basis for suspension applies to all of the children, child support services will assist in suspending support obligations for all of the children.

b. If the basis for suspension applies to at least one but not all of the children and if the support order includes a step change, child support services will assist in suspending the support obligations for children for whom the basis for suspension applies.

102.3(4) *Limited to current support. The provisions for suspending support apply only toward ongoing or current support. Any support that has accrued prior to the entry of an order suspending support, including judgments for past periods of time, is unaffected by the suspension.

102.3(5) *Duration of conditions. The basis for suspension of support as provided in subrule 102.3(2) and subrule 102.3(3) must reasonably be expected to continue for not less than six months from the date a request for assistance to suspend is received by child support services.
