

441—97.1(252B) Definitions. The definitions of terms used in this chapter will follow those terms defined in rule 441—95.1(252B) with the exception or addition of the following:

“Collection services center” means the public agency designated to receive, record, monitor, and disburse support payments as defined in Iowa Code section 598.1, 252B.15 or 252D.16, in accordance with Iowa Code sections 252B.13A and 252B.14.

“Correlated non-IV-D case” means a non-IV-D case where income withholding information must be maintained by child support services in order to properly process an income withholding payment because the obligor has both a non-IV-D and a current or former IV-D case.

“Electronic funds transmission” means, for purposes of this chapter, the use of a NACHA-approved child support format for the electronic transmission of funds to the collection services center.

“Employee” means the same as defined in Iowa Code section 252G.1.

“Former IV-D case” means a case that previously received services from child support services under rule 441—95.2(252B) but currently receives only payment processing services from the collection services center.

“Insufficient funds payment” means a support payment by check or other financial instrument that is dishonored, not paid, or the funding of the payment is determined to be inadequate.

“IV-D case” means a case that receives services from child support services under rule 441—95.2(252B), including payment processing services from the collection services center.

“NACHA-approved child support format” means a child support payment transmission format approved by the National Automated Clearing House Association (NACHA).

“Non-IV-D case” means a support order that never received services from child support services under rule 441—95.2(252B) but that receives payment processing services from the collection services center for income withholding payments.

“Obligee” means the guardian, custodial parent, person, or entity entitled to receive support payments.

“Obligor” means a parent, relative, or any other person declared to be legally liable for the support of a child or the custodial parent or guardian of the child.

“Payor of income” means the same as defined in Iowa Code section 252D.16.

“Support payment” means the same as “support” or “support payments” as defined in Iowa Code section 252D.16.

“Website” means the website operated by the department for the purpose of allowing a payor of income to make a support payment through electronic transmission to the collection services center.
