

441—98.27(252B) Administrative seek employment order duration of order. The seek employment order will remain in effect for three months from the date of issuance unless child support services determines the obligor has a valid reason for noncompliance as specified at rule 441—98.25(252B), at which time the order becomes unenforceable.

Upon acceptance of the reason for noncompliance, child support services will notify the obligor that the obligor is no longer required to comply with the seek employment order. Upon denial of the reason for noncompliance, child support services will notify the obligor that the obligor will comply with the existing seek employment order. The notice will be filed with the clerk of the district court. If the obligor disputes this decision, the obligor will have recourse through the district court.
