

261—20.18(260G) ACE program serving demand occupations. The college student aid commission administers the career education grants portion of the ACE program. The authority will report to the college student aid commission those ACE programs which service demand occupations within targeted industries as designated by the authority in consultation with the department of workforce development. [ARC 0612C, IAB 2/20/13, effective 3/27/13]