

761—161.3(307) Source of funds. The Surface Transportation Program established in Section 133 of Title 23 of the United States Code provides for the use of federal funds to replace or rehabilitate public road bridges. The department, in consultation with county and city officials through their representative organizations, has dedicated a portion of these funds for replacement and rehabilitation of city and county bridges.

[ARC 2425C, IAB 3/2/16, effective 4/6/16]