

21—91.22 (203) Electronic grain contracts. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, a licensee may issue electronic grain contracts using its own computer system or may contract with an independent provider to issue electronic grain contracts. If the licensee contracts with an independent provider, rules 21—91.22(203) through 21—91.26(203) shall apply. If the licensee issues electronic grain contracts using its own computer system, rules 21—91.22(203), 21—91.25(203) and 21—91.26(203) shall apply.

This rule is intended to implement Iowa Code sections 203.2 and 203.17.
