

7—2505.8(17A,22) Notice to suppliers of information. When the agency requests a person to supply information about that person, the agency will notify the person of the use that will be made of the information, which persons outside the agency might routinely be provided this information, which parts of the requested information are mandatory and which are optional, and the consequences of a failure to provide the information requested. This notice may be given in a manner that the agency in its discretion deems appropriate to adequately notify the person in accordance with this rule.

[ARC 0190D, IAB 4/1/26, effective 5/6/26]