- b. Whether the specific circumstances that pose immediate danger to public health, safety, or welfare have been identified and determined to be continuing;
- c. Whether the person subject to the proposed emergency adjudicative order may continue to engage in other activities without posing immediate danger to public health, safety, or welfare;
- d. Whether imposition of monitoring obligations or other interim safeguards would be sufficient to protect the public health, safety, or welfare; and

- c. To the practicable degree, the agency is obligated to select the procedure for providing written notice that best ensures prompt, reliable delivery.

2506.31(3) Oral notice. Unless the emergency adjudicative order is served by personal delivery on the same day that it is issued, the agency is obligated to make reasonable immediate efforts to contact the people to whom the order applies by telephone.

2506.31(4) Completion of proceedings.

- a. After the issuance of an emergency adjudicative order, the agency will proceed as quickly as feasible to complete any proceedings that would be needed if the matter did not involve an immediate danger.
