

421—7.1(17A) Definition. The term “waiver” as used in this chapter means a prescribed waiver or variance from a specific rule or set of rules of this department applicable only to an identified person on the basis of the particular circumstances of that person.