

641—170.10(17A) Submission of materials. Requests for applications and submission of applications and other materials shall be made directly to the division of the department administering the relevant program. Any person who submits materials should enclose a cover letter which states the use for which the materials are intended. Where the administrative rules give a specific procedure, such procedure should be followed.

[ARC 8663B, IAB 4/7/10, effective 5/12/10]