

427—11.1(216A) Purpose. The Iowa affordable heating program is established for the purpose of providing additional energy assistance which certain low-income Iowans may require in order to maintain access to their primary heating fuel. Such assistance shall be in addition to the regular low-income home energy assistance program grants.