

605—12.2(29C) Definitions.

“Administrator” means the administrator of the homeland security and emergency management division of the department of public defense.

“First responder advisory committee” means the advisory committee created by the administrator for the purpose of providing advice on public safety response issues within Iowa.

“Governor’s disaster proclamation” means the proclamation of disaster emergency issued by the governor in accordance with Iowa Code section 29C.6.