

261—195.5(15,22) Additions, dissents or objections. Except as otherwise provided by law, the person who is the subject of a record may have a written statement of additions, dissents or objections entered into that record. The statement must be filed with the authority, be dated and signed by the person who is the subject of the record, and include the person's current address and telephone number, and email address if available. This rule does not authorize the person who is the subject of the record to alter the original record or to expand the official record of any authority proceeding.
