

193E—8.1(543B) Closing a real estate firm. The following steps are necessary for the voluntary closing of a real estate brokerage firm. The individual broker or the designated broker:

8.1(1) Notifies the commission via electronic application upon closing the firm. The following information may be included:

- a. The date the firm closed or will close;
- b. The location where records and files will be stored for a minimum of five years; and
- c. The name, address, and telephone number of the custodian who will be storing the records and files;

8.1(2) Notifies all licensees associated with the firm in writing of the effective date of the closing. The former affiliated broker makes every reasonable effort to return the licenses of any licensees associated with the firm at the time of closing to the commission within 72 hours, with written notice that the firm is closed;

8.1(3) Notifies all listing and management clients as well as parties and co-brokers to existing contracts, in writing, advising of the date the firm will close. All listing and management clients are advised in writing that they may enter into a new listing or management agreement with the broker of their choice;

8.1(4) Removes advertising signs from all properties that were listed with or managed by the firm. Arranges to cancel advertising in the name of the firm, including office signs, Internet to include websites and social media, and telephone listing advertisements;

8.1(5) Maintains all escrow or trust accounts until all moneys are transferred to the lending institution, an escrow company or an attorney for closing of the transaction, or are otherwise properly disbursed as agreed to in writing by the parties having an interest in the funds; and

8.1(6) Arranges for pending contracts to be closed by a lending institution, an escrow company or an attorney. In the case of a sale, transfer or merger of an existing brokerage, the acquiring broker may close the pending transactions acquired from the selling broker after having first obtained the express written consent of all parties to the transactions. The broker notifies all parties involved in pending transactions as to the name, address, and telephone number of the closing agent.
