

281—41.1016(17A) Correcting decisions of administrative law judges. An administrative law judge may, on the motion of any party or on the administrative law judge's own motion, correct any error in a decision or order under this chapter that does not substantively alter the administrative law judge's findings of fact, conclusions of law, or ordered relief, including clerical errors, errors in grammar or spelling, and errors in the form of legal citation. Any such correction will be made within 90 days of the date of the order or decision, will relate back to the date of the order or decision, and will not extend any applicable statute of limitations.
