

193F—12.2(543D) Prorating of registration fees. An applicant applying for initial registration or certification within 12 months from the applicant's required renewal date, pursuant to 193F—9.1(543D), shall pay half the required fee. An applicant applying for initial registration or certification more than 12 months from the applicant's required renewal date shall pay the full registration fee.