

265—9.5 (16) Operation. The division offers guaranties of real property titles in the state through the issuance of commitments and certificates.

9.5(1) Commitments, certificates, forms and manuals. The terms, conditions, and form of commitments and certificates shall be approved by the division board. The division may adopt and use manuals and other forms as the division deems necessary for implementation and administration of the title guaranty program.

a. The division will provide forms to a participant for use in issuing commitments and certificates on behalf of the division. A participant may not alter any form supplied by the division or use a form supplied by another person to bind the division. In addition, the participant shall not transfer or attempt to transfer unissued commitments or certificates to another participant or other person unless authorized in writing by the division.

b. If a participant fails to comply with the requirements of this rule, in addition to the division's other rights and remedies, the division may refuse to allow the participant access to any forms until the participant complies with the requirements of this chapter to the satisfaction of the division.

c. A participant shall be liable to the division for loss or damage sustained by the division by reason of the loss of, misuse of, or inability of the participant to account for any form supplied by the division, or the failure of the participant to comply with the requirements of this rule.

9.5(2) Application for commitments and certificates. The division shall make an application for commitments and certificates available at the office of the division and on the division's Web site.

9.5(3) Rates. The division shall set the rates for certificates and closing protection letters in an amount sufficient to permit the title guaranty program to operate on a self-sustaining basis, including payment of administrative costs and the maintenance of an adequate reserve against claims. In transactions involving extraordinary risk or unusual or unique endorsements, the division may charge additional fees.
