

265—16.10(17A) Contents of declaratory order—effective date. In addition to the order itself, a declaratory order must contain the date of its issuance; the name of petitioner and all intervenors; the specific statutes, rules, policies, decisions, or orders involved; the particular facts upon which it is based; and the reasons for its conclusion. A declaratory order is effective on the date of issuance.

[ARC 9153C, IAB 4/30/25, effective 6/4/25]