

441—172.12 (234) Service eligibility.

172.12(1) The agency may refer a family for family-centered safety plan services when:

- a.* A child in the family is alleged to be a victim of abuse (an “alleged child victim”) on a child protective assessment or is the subject of a child in need of assistance assessment (a “child subject”); and
- b.* During the child protective assessment or child in need of assistance assessment, the agency determines that the alleged child victim or child subject is conditionally safe.

172.12(2) When the agency approves a case for safety plan services, the following persons may be included in service provision:

- a.* The alleged child victim or child subject;
- b.* Any whole, half, or step siblings of the alleged child victim or child subject who reside in the same household; and
- c.* The parents, stepparents, adoptive parents, or caretakers of the alleged child victim or child subject.
